

WHEN YOU FAIL - PART 1

KEEPERS OF SECRETS

1. During The Message on Sunday Pastor Addressed the Often-Used Phrase, “No One Is Perfect,” In Order to Emphasize That We All Have Skeletons and We Should Anticipate Mistakes Being Made by Believers. Discuss Your Thoughts on Why at Times, We Can Be So Judgmental and Even Condemnatory When Others Fall.
2. In The Story of King David’s Fall from Grace, Pastor Spoke About the Various Secret Keepers: Those Who Keep Secrets by Implication, Those for Manipulation and Those for Reconciliation. Would You Say That You Have People in Your Life Who Fit into Any of These Categories When It Comes to The Hidden Secrets of Your Life?
3. According To the Scripture Believers Are Called to Confess Their Faults One to Another, [James 5:16]. Do You Believe That the Current Church Is Mature Enough for This to Take Place? Have We Done Enough to Cultivate Open and Trusting Environments for Believers to Share Their Secrets? How Can We Get Better at Creating a Culture of Openness or Transparency?
